MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF PETITION TO CONFIRM ARBITRATION AWARDS

Preliminary Statement

This memorandum of law is submitted on behalf of Petitioners, the Pressroom Unions' Welfare Trust Fund, Pension Trust Fund and Local 51 Education, Relocation and Supplemental Unemployment Benefits Fund (the "Funds"), in support of their petition to confirm the awards in the arbitration proceedings between the Funds and respondent Eveready Graphics, Inc. ("Eveready"). The arbitration awards (the "Awards") were served upon Eveready. Eveready, however, has failed to comply with the Awards.

Statement of Facts

The Funds are jointly-administered, multi-employer, labor-management trust funds established and maintained pursuant to various collective bargaining agreements in accordance with section 302(c)(5) the Taft-Hartley Act (29 U.S.C. § 186(c)(5)). The Funds are employee benefit plans within the meaning of sections 3(1), 3(3) and 502(d)(1) of ERISA (29 U.S.C. §§ 1002(1), (3) and 1132(d)(1)), and multi-employer plans within the meaning of sections 3(37) and 515 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. §§ 1002(37) and 1145). The Funds provide various health, welfare, pension, education, relocation and supplemental unemployment benefits to eligible employees on whose behalf employers contribute to the Funds pursuant to collective bargaining agreements between employers in the printing industry and the Graphic Communications Union Local 51-23M G.C.I.U.-A.F.L.-C.I.O. (the “Union”). The Trustees of the Funds are fiduciaries within the meaning of sections 3(21) and 502 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. §§ 1002(21) and 1132). (Verified Petition, ¶¶’s 2 and 3).

Respondent Eveready, an employer within the meaning of sections 3(5) and 515 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. §§ 1002(5) and 1145) and an employer in an industry affecting commerce within the meaning of section 301 of the Taft-Hartley Act (29 U.S.C. § 185), contractually agreed with the Union to be bound by the terms of a collective bargaining agreement with the Union (the “CBA”) and the Funds’ trust agreements. (Verified Petition, ¶¶’s 4 and 5).

Pursuant to the CBA and the trust agreements, Eveready agreed to pay monthly contributions to the Funds for all of Eveready’s covered employees. (Verified Petition, ¶ 6).

Eveready failed to pay its required monthly contributions to the Funds for the months of November 2006 through February 2007. As a result, the Funds served Eveready with a demand for arbitration for each failure. (Verified Petition, ¶¶’s 7 and 8).

Arbitration hearings were held on January 30, 2007, February 26, 2007, March 29, 2007 and May 30, 2007. (Verified Petition, ¶ 9, Petition Exh. B).

The Funds were present at each hearing, but Eveready did not appear. The Arbitrator heard the matters and received evidence submitted by the Funds as to the amount of Eveready's delinquencies. (Verified Petition, ¶ 10).

After having provided the parties with full and ample opportunity to appear and to present evidence with arguments in support of their respective positions, the Arbitrator issued the written awards (the "Awards"). (Verified Petition, ¶ 11, Petition Exh. B).

Each of the Awards was sent to Eveready. To date, however, none of the delinquent contributions contractually due to the Funds and no part of the Awards in favor of the Funds have been paid. (Verified Petition, ¶¶'s 12 and 13).

As a result of Eveready's failure to comply with its contractual and statutory obligations under ERISA, petitioners Funds have been required to employ counsel to enforce the Awards. (Verified Petition, ¶¶'s 14 and 15).

ARGUMENT

I. THE ARBITRATION AWARDS SHOULD BE CONFIRMED

Jurisdiction of this proceeding is premised upon section 301 of the Labor Management Relations Act of 1947, as amended (29 U.S.C. §185) (the "Taft-Hartley Act"), section 9 of the Federal Arbitration Act, as amended (9 U.S.C. § 9), and sections 502(a)(3), 502(e) and 515 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act, as amended (29 U.S.C. §§ 1132(a)(3), 1132(e) and 1145) ("ERISA"), all of which confer jurisdiction on this Court.

This proceeding, which is brought by the Trustees of the Funds, seeks to confirm and enforce the Awards issued within the past year as a result of Eveready's failure to comply with its contractual and statutory obligation under ERISA to pay contributions to the Funds. Section 502(a) of ERISA (29 U.S.C. §1132(a)(3)), provides, in pertinent part, that an action may be brought by a participant, beneficiary, or fiduciary, (A) to enjoin any act or practice which violates any provisions of this subchapter or the terms of the plan, or (B) to obtain other appropriate equitable relief (i) to redress such violations or (ii) to enforce any provisions of this subchapter or the terms of the plan.

Section 301 of the Taft-Hartley Act grants federal courts the authority to confirm arbitration awards. Local 802, Associated Musicians v. Parker Meridien Hotel, 145 F.3d 85, 88 (2d Cir. 1998); Harry Hoffman Printing, Inc. v. Graphic Communication, Int'l Union, Local 261, 912 F.2d 608, 612 (2d Cir. 1990). In addition, section 9 of the Federal Arbitration Act (the “FAA”) provides for judicial enforcement of arbitration awards.

Courts in this circuit have recognized that the “confirmation of an arbitration award is a summary proceeding that merely makes what is already a final arbitration award a judgment of the court.” Florasynth Inc. v. Pickholz, 750 F.2d 171, 176 (2d Cir. 1984); see also Barbier v. Shearson Lehman Hutton, Inc., 752 F. Supp. 151, 159 (S.D.N.Y. 1990). Judicial review of an arbitration award is extremely limited. See United Paperworkers Int'l Union v. Misco, Inc., 484 U.S. 29 (1987); Local 1199, Hosp. & Health Care Employees Union v. Brooks Drug Co., 956 F.2d 22, 23 (2d Cir. 1992). Pursuant to section 9 of the FAA, the Court must confirm the award, unless respondent can establish a valid defense under section 10 or 11 of the FAA. See Barbier, 752 F. Supp. at 159.

In the present case, none of the grounds for denying the petition to confirm the Awards are present. Accordingly, the Funds’ petition should be granted.

II. PETITIONERS SHOULD BE AWARDED THE FULL RELIEF AUTHORIZED BY ERISA

In actions involving delinquent contributions, section 502(g)(2) of ERISA (29 U.S.C. § 1132(g)(2)), provides:

In any action under this subchapter by a fiduciary for or on behalf of a plan to enforce § 1145 of this title in which a judgment in favor of the plan is awarded, the court shall award the plan-

- (A) the unpaid contributions,
- (B) interest on the unpaid contributions,
- (C) an amount equal to the greater of
 - (i) interest on the unpaid contributions, or
 - (ii) liquidated damages provided for under the plan in an amount not in excess of 20 percent (or such higher percentage as may be permitted under Federal or State law) of the amount determined by the court under subparagraph (A),
- (D) reasonable attorney's fees and costs of the action, to be paid by the defendant, and
- (E) such other legal or equitable relief as the court deems appropriate.

For purposes of this paragraph, interest on unpaid contributions shall be determined by using the rate provided under the plan, or, if none, the rate prescribed under section 6621 of Title 26.

Although the specified relief and monetary amounts mandated by sections 502(g)(2)(A), (B) and (C)(ii), pertaining to the unpaid contributions, interest on the unpaid contributions and liquidated damages, are already included in the Awards, the Funds request an order and judgment for each of the aforementioned specified forms of relief, including attorneys' fees and costs incurred in this proceeding, pursuant to ERISA.

III. PETITIONERS ARE ENTITLED TO RECOVER ATTORNEYS' FEES

As set forth above, section 502(g)(2)(D) of ERISA requires an award of attorneys' fees and costs incurred in the collection of unpaid contributions. Additionally, in suits to compel compliance with an arbitration award, reasonable attorneys' fees are properly awarded if the party opposing enforcement or failing to comply with the award acted without justification.

International Chemical Workers v. BASF Wyandotte Corp., 774 F.2d 43 (2d Cir. 1985); Synergy Gas Co. v. Sasso, 853 F.2d 59 (2d Cir. 1988); Corporate Printing Co. v. New York Typographical Union No. 6, 1994 WL 376093 (S.D.N.Y. 1994)(Sotomayor, J.).

In the present case, Eveready has flagrantly refused to comply with the Awards, and it cannot provide justification for its failure to comply with its statutory and contractual obligations. As a direct result of Eveready's non-compliance, the Funds have incurred costs and legal fees to seek judicial enforcement of the Awards. Thus, under the circumstances, it is respectfully submitted that Petitioners are entitled to an award of attorneys' fees and costs.

CONCLUSION

For all the foregoing reasons, Petitioners respectfully request that the Court issue an Order confirming the Awards and granting the supplemental relief requested, as well as such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
